Dear NFHS Officials Association Member:

Congratulations on making an important professional choice by becoming a member of the NFHS Officials Association. The NFHS Officials Association has more than 100,000 officials who, like you, have joined an organization dedicated to the professional development and recognition of officials throughout the United States. The NFHS Officials Association is the largest association exclusively for high school officials in the country. We hope you take advantage of and enjoy all the benefits membership has to offer.

See the reverse side for general information regarding your member benefits.
