

MORRIS D. KELLEY AWARD WINNERS

This award was created by the Board of Control in 2001 to honor deserving public address announcers of our schools. The honor is based on years of service dedication, commitment to excellent sportsmanship and enhancing each game with an impartial and informational approach. Award winners are chosen by an impartial panel of school administrators from nominations of our member schools. The Award in part honors the 31 years of service of Morris D. Kelley, Publications Director of the IHSAA and the voice of the State Tournament Awards, 1970-2001.
