111 YEARS AND COUNTING

2022 is the 111th year of state high school basketball tournaments in our state. The tournaments from 1912 through 1922 were operated by the Iowa Athletic Council, a group of school administrators sanctioned by the IHSAA. To grow the sport, the Council held "invitational state tournaments" usually at sites connected by railroads - Ames, Iowa City, Boone, etc. The tournaments created interest but did not address issues like length of the season, number of games, eligibility, academic grade and age of the participants, etc. Thus, in 1923 the IHSAA assumed total control of the sport.

For many years, basketball was the "gold standard" for the Association, generating enough revenue to offset the cost of salaries, operations, awards, and administering each of the other sports sanctioned by the IHSAA. Because of strong support from the member schools, boys' basketball still enjoys strong public support and attracts over 10,000 participants across Iowa.

Each year we make a serious effort to correct sections within this book and to make them as comprehensive as our records allow. With the help of Jared Chizek and Chris Andringa, we have corrected spellings and typos that occur with a book of this nature, as well as making the information more comprehensive.
